

MIÈGE, FACING SOUTHWARDS

A superb place for walkers, Miège is the ideal starting-point for some shady walks alongside historic irrigation channels and on the Planige plateau.

Miège is a small wine-growing village beneath the Planige pine forest, with 1,290 inhabitants.

The starting-point for several walks, it has many places of interest, such as the parish church with its Stations of the Cross.

www.miege.ch